

Student Transportation Policy

While the primary responsibility of the driver is to operate the bus in a safe manner, each student must assume responsibility for his/her conduct while on the bus. For safety reasons, misbehavior is not tolerated, so please review the following list of bus safety rules with your child. While most students are courteous and thoughtful bus riders, parents are liable for all misbehavior of their children on the bus and at the neighborhood bus stop. Students at the bus stop or on the bus are subject to the discipline policies of the school for their behavior.

Transportation will strictly follow the students policy as this is an extension of the classroom and among school property when in use
